

Early Incentive for High School Seniors

This incentive is awarded in the Summer or Fall 2010 quarter to high school seniors who enroll full-time in an Associate in Applied Science Degree program at Northwestern College.

Applicants are required to submit this application form, copies of their high school transcript, and a completed class schedule. Students must also take and pass the Compass Entrance Exam—this will be waived if a minimum ACT score of 20 is submitted, and be granted admission to Northwestern College in order for the incentive to be effective. All entries remain the property of Northwestern College and will not be returned.

Early Incentive recipients will be awarded the dollar amounts that correspond to the dates when the admissions application and all supporting documents were submitted:

- Level 1: Before March 31, 2010, recipients will be awarded $4,000 which will be applied to tuition at the rate of $667 per quarter for up to six quarters
- Level 2: April 1 to May 31, 2010, recipients will be awarded $3,500 which will be applied to tuition at the rate of $583 per quarter for up to six quarters
- Level 3: June 1 to June 30, 2010, recipients will be awarded $3,000 which will be applied to tuition at the rate of $500 per quarter for up to six quarters

This incentive is nontransferable and must be used in conjunction with an Associate in Applied Science Degree program. Quarterly application to tuition is automatic as long as a 2.25 grade point average, continuous enrollment, and full-time status in the declared major are maintained, and there is no outstanding debt to the College. This incentive may be used in conjunction with one other Northwestern College scholarship. This incentive may not be combined with Northwestern College employee benefits.
